

I'm writing this review to express my complete 150% satisfaction in hiring Brian Winters as my legal attorney. Brian's 30 years experience shined thru to win my alimony case upon my retirement.

The fact that this matter had its beginning in N.J., and I have since relocated to Georgia added to the complication of this motion.

Brian was able to make the procedures totally convenient to me living so far away. Due to my very busy work schedule, he arranged our phone conversations for Sunday afternoons. He always discussed matters in a way that I understood, on my level of wording.

To me, Brian was like the friendly neighbor, who at the same time, portrayed complete professionalism, knowledge, and personal concern. He made me feel very confident that I'd get very positive results.

With so many lawyers to choose from, I am so thankful I chose Brian Winters and his law firm to represent me. Because of this, Brian was able to win my case with better results than originally expected.

Excellent service, excellent representation, and excellent results. That's what you can expect from Brian Winters Law firm.
